

Sarnia Riding Club Stingrays - Code of Conduct

Swimmers have the right to

- Be treated with respect and consideration
- Feel safe in a caring environment
- Participate in a high quality swim program which takes into account their individual strengths and needs
- Express their ideas and opinions respectfully

Swimmers have the responsibility to

- Treat others with consideration and fairness while respecting their rights and feelings
- Help establish a clean, safe environment by caring for all personal and club property
- Demonstrate positive attitudes toward learning
- Participate actively in all aspects of their swim program
- Show up to practice on time, ready and willing to swim
- Stay in the lane they are assigned to

Parents have the responsibility to

- Discuss and assist their child in understanding the Code of Conduct
- Encourage their child to respect the rights and feeling of others
- Play an active part in their child's swimming development
- Present a positive, constructive attitude toward club members, coaching staff

Coaching staff has the responsibility to

- Provide the best swim program possible, accommodating individual swimmer's needs
- Create and maintain order in a safe, nurturing environment
- Deal with swimmers, parents, and peers in a fair and positive manner
- Communicate meet results and other relevant information with parents and swimmers in a fair and positive manner